

Meet The Scarecrows

Saturday, October 13th

11am to 1pm

Hudson Public Library & Hudson Rotary Club

Guidelines:

Please call the Hudson Public Library to register your scarecrow @ 978-568-9645.

Clubs, Not-for-profits, Schools, Families or Area Businesses are all invited to submit a scarecrow. Be creative! Use any material to create a scarecrow of any theme!

Scarecrows will be set-up on Saturday, October 13th starting at 9am. They may be delivered directly to Liberty Park at this time or dropped off at the library on Friday, October 12th by 5:30pm. **if you need a stake for mounting, let us know**

Please, no handouts at your display. But, scarecrows may reflect a special theme and/or promote a business, organization, event, family, etc. through signage!

Remember to use weatherproof signage and to construct scarecrows to withstand the weather, too!

Scarecrows will remain in Liberty Park through the end of October. The Library and Rotary Club are not responsible for damage to scarecrows or materials.

Tear down begins on Thursday, November 1st. If you want your materials/scarecrow back, please plan to come or call and let the library know. Scarecrows and any material left behind will be discarded Friday, November 2nd.

Other Information:

Entries may include more than one scarecrow, whimsical character or décor, but space is limited so entrants are asked to be mindful of the size of their Scarecrow Creations. Please, no dangerous items, torches, lights, mechanical pieces, etc. Scarecrows will not have access to power and must be self-contained.

Scarecrows reflecting controversial, social, religious or political opinions or statements will not be displayed in Liberty Park.
